

ACTIVATION INSERVICE MEETING

Written by Publisher

most concerned about along with cards the active kids had written for them. Then we co-ordinated families and put the most appropriate teachers together. We got together for a song and a prayer and then we made up plates of goodies (everyone brought some) for the people we were visiting. It helped the teachers feel responsibility for the members of their classes, get to know each other better and it was fun. We also had a summer barbecue. Serving in primary means you get to go to parties. "
