

POSTCARDS

Written by Publisher

Every Sunday we ask the teachers to take a stack of the postcards and take 5 minutes out of class time and have the children or teacher color a picture or write a note to the children that are not there that Sunday whether or not they are inactive. We hope that some children will feel like they are missed and will want to come back to church."