

PRESIDENCY VISIT

Written by Publisher

It could also work with one member of the presidency and the children's teachers. We feel this has been successful, sometimes the children return to activity and bring their families with them. Even if they don't come back to church we feel we have made an effort to reach out to these children and let them know that we love them, and that they haven't been forgotten.